FARM MANAGEMENT ONE OF MOST DIFFICULT PROBLEMS

Attention Should be Given to the Laying Out of Fields and Lo- cating Gates and Fences.

Farm management problems are among the most difficult which the farmer has to solve. Each crop grown is a business by itself, like-wise each class of stock involves its own peculiar difficulties. It becomes the province of the farmer to select and fit these business problems to-gether so that they will work out harmoniously and profitably. Logi-cally the farmer is fast coming to be classed among the great business men of our country.

Foremost among the problems which the farmer meets are the con-siderations of economy of time and labor. Far from being the least in importance of these matters, and one all too little heeded by the av-erage farmer, is the problem of laying out the farm into fields and locating gates, fences and buildings so that the minimum of time and energy may be used in performing the regular labor of the farm.

On every farm new fences are being built, new buildings construct-ed, and new adjustments of fields are constantly being made, conse-quently it is well for every farmer to carry in mind, or even to dia-gram, plans for this farm architec-ture much in advance of his actual handling of the work.

HIDE THEM BOTH

As a member of the Advisory Committee we would suggest that the best vote getter for Wilson in Kentucky would be W. J. Bryan. We would also suggest that Gov. Stanley expend his voice in some other state.—Elizabethtown News.

Montgomery Quarterly Court.

Owingsville Banking Company, Pltff.
Vs. Judgment.
Ben Karriek .....Defendant

This cause coming on for trial and the defendant having been duly summoned, and failing to answer, and the Court being advised. Now adjudges that the plaintiff, Owingsville Banking Company, have judg-ment against the defendant, Ben Karriek, for the sum of $354.75, with 6 per cent. interest thereon from Feb. 22, 1915, until paid, and its costs. Subject, however, to the following credits: $7.00 as of Feb. 26, 1912; $135.00 as of April 14, 1913, and $55.00 as of April 22, 1913.

And it is further adjudged by the Court that the plaintiff has a first and only lien to secure the pay-ment of its said debt, interest and cost, on one pair of five-year-old horse mules, one iron gray and one black, one red muley cow and her red suckling heifer, and that said property, or a sufficiency thereof be sold for the purpose of satisfy-ing plaintiff's debt, interests and costs. And said property will be sold at the Courthouse door in Mt. Sterling, Montgomery county, Ky., and will be duly advertised and sold upon same time, terms, conditions as like personal property is required to be when sold under execution. And T. B. Rodman is appointed Special Commissioner of this Court to make said sale, and he is allowed the sum of $7.50 for making said sale, to be paid by plaintiff and taxed as cost. The Special Commis-sioner will take bond or bonds pay-able to himself, with good security, due in ninety days from date of sale, bearing 6 per cent. interest from date of sale until paid. There-upon, said Commissioner appeared in open Court and gave bond with R. A. Chiles as his surety, which bond is approved, and took the oath required by law. Said Com-missioner will make his report of his acts and doings at the next term of this Court. And this cause is continued.

A CONTENTED SPIRIT

Remember, if you have only what is called an ordinary home, that the great deliverers of the world have all come from such a home. And there may be seated reading at your evening stand a child who shall be potent for the ages. Just unroll the scroll of men mighty in church and state, and you will find they nearly all came from log cab-ins or poor homes. Genius almost runs out in the third or fourth gen-eration. You cannot find in all his-tory an instance where the fourth generation of extraordinary people amounted to anything. Columbus from a weaver's hut, Demosthenes from a cutler's cellar, Bloomfield and Missionary Carey from a shoe-maker's bench, Arkwright from a barber's shop and He whose name is high over all in earth and air and sky from a manger.

Let us all be content with such things as we have. God is just as good in what He keeps away from us as in what He gives us. Even a knot may be useful if it is at the end of a thread. The spider draws honey out of a flower; the bees get honey out of a thistle, but happi-ness is a heavenly elixir and the contented spirit extracts it not from the rhododendron of the hills, but from the lily of the valley.

Rooms for Rent.

Rooms on North-Sycomore street. Apply to John W. Jones. (50-1f)

The world is full of women who can amuse the ordinary man. Can sing, dance or recite for him; can paint, write or decorate in a manner most pleasing, but the poor man of-ten goes begging for a woman who can sew on buttons or mend his clothes; who can cook his food with economy and flavor it to his taste.

Trouble sometimes has a whole-some influence. It has been known to make people who are always in the way get a move on.

ADVICE TO OUR YOUNG

LADY READERS

Allow no time to pass without brightening someone's life. Within five minutes' walk of you there is some one tragedy compared with which Shakespeare's King Lear or Victor Hugo's Jean Valjean has no power. Go out and brighten some-body's life with a cheering word or smile or a flower. Take a good book and read a chapter to that blind man. Go up that dark alley and make that invalid woman laugh with some good story. Go to the house from which that child has been taken by death and tell the father and mother what an escape the child has had from the winter of earth into the springtime of heaven.

Young woman, live to make oth-ers happy, and you will be happy! Live for yourself and you will be miserable! There never has been an exception to the rule, there never will be an exception.

SYSTEMATIZE

Your household expenses by opening a bank account for your wife. Give her a check book and teach her the use of it. Pay the butcher, the grocer, the baker, with a check. Then at the end of the month you'll find out just how much it costs you to run the home. When payment by check is made there never is any doubt as to whether or not a bill is paid. The check is a receipt.

Besides, a checking account will give your wife a business education. The number of ordinarily bright women who know absolutely nothing of banking is surprising. If you are a husband, father, brother, you cannot tell when death may overtake you, and it is well that your wife, daughter and sister know something of banking.
